

RBREL 2010 season rules

1. Classes and drivers:

1.1 WRC:

In WRC class drivers can only drive WRC class car that are not OWRC class cars. Applications for team manager positions are based on approval of RBREL management. Team must consist atleast 2 drivers. Previous team manager are favored for specific team they already lead. Participation in WRC class is only possible for a fee (look at point no. 4). Fees are variable for them (look at point no. 4). Only Estonian residents can participate in WRC class.

1.2 OWRC

In OWRC class (aka original WRC cars) drivers can only drive with cars belong originally to Richard Burns Rally WRC class and WRC cars manufactured until year 2003 included, pluss A8 class cars. Participation in WRC class is only possible for a fee (look at point no. 5). Fee is 50% from WRC class fee. OWRC class is ment for drivers who are looking „intermediate“ class for going later to WRC class or for newcomers to WRC cars, who feel themselves not yet ready for WRC class. At the end of season OWRC first three podium drivers must choose – are they going to WRC class or they fall back for some lower racing class. It's possible to make several teams per every car, max. 3 drivers per team.

1.3 J-WRC

In those two classes the participation is free of charge. It's possible to make several teams per every car, max. 3 drivers per team. To make a team it has to have at least two drivers. In JWRC class S1600 cars are used. All the drivers from Baltic States can participate in these classes and also score points.

1.4 P-WRC

In those two classes the participation is free of charge. It's possible to make several teams per every car, max. 3 drivers per team. To make a team it has to have at least two drivers. In PWRC class group N cars are used. All the drivers from Baltic States can participate in these classes and also score points.

1.5 SWRC

In those two classes the participation is free of charge. It's possible to make several teams per every car, max. 3 drivers per team. To make a team it has to have at least two drivers. In SWRC class S2000 cars are used. All the drivers from Baltic States can participate in these classes and also score points.

1.6 Team manager

Every team can only have one manager. The team manager can drive in another racing class. The team manager chooses the drivers for the team and makes contracts with them for a certain period of time, during which the drivers can't leave the team, switch to another team or end a contract without a proper reason. The length of a contract is calculated based on the number of rally events.

1.7 Driver

Driver can drive only in one class at once. Driver is honest to himself and other participants. In case of mistake RBREL management can take appropriate measures, including penalties, according to rules presented here.
